| Opening Song — There's A Road of High Adventure (TB448) | | | |
| T HERE'S a road of high adventure, There's a Kingdom fair to gain, There's a cross to follow bravely, And a warfare to maintain. For the splendor of his service To the youth of every land, God's own trumpeters are sounding; Who will heed the great command? By the pathway of duty Flows the river of God's grace; By the pathway of duty Flows the river of God's grace. | Shall with glory stand fulfilled; And the master builder calleth; Hands are wanted, hear him say, Youthful hands to build my city; Who will offer them today? 3 There are multitudes in darkness, Where the light may never shine Till the torch of youth, uplifted, Beams with radiance divine; There's a world at random drifting, Which belongs to Christ the Lord: He is claiming youth's allegiance Till his Kingdom is restored. Will J. Brand (1889-1977) (verses), Sidney Edward Cox (1887-1975) (chorus) | | |
